

CHURCH HEALTH ASSESSMENT

with Brad Straarup

THE VALUE OF ASSESSMENT

- Regular health assessment is crucial for churches and organizations to identify areas of improvement and ensure growth.
- Self-assessment and external assessment are both important for a comprehensive evaluation of the health of an organization.
- Feedback from team members and stakeholders is valuable in identifying blind spots and areas for improvement.
- Leadership plays a key role in driving change and creating a culture of continuous improvement.
- Aligning with the vision and values of the organization is essential for effective assessment and growth.

PERSONAL QUESTIONS

1. Why do I/we exist?
 2. What am I doing to accomplish why we exist?
 3. How am I/we doing?
 4. What values do we need to succeed?
 5. What is most important right now?
- You always need a single, top priority at any given time.
 - Always have a thematic goal, and be sure to say it in every conversation.
 - Remember PC's bucket illustration – What's the lowest slat of the bucket?

ORGANIZATIONAL QUESTIONS

1. What is my original calling from God?
2. Who needs to be sitting at the table?
3. Who doesn't need to be sitting at the table?
4. Where are we manufacturing energy and why?
5. Where do I make the greatest contribution to the organization?
6. Whose not keeping up? Am I the reason they are not?
7. What have I fallen in love with that really needs to change?
8. What would a great leader do?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Keep growing to reach your full potential by asking yourself and your team these questions:

ASSESSING YOUR HEALTH

- 1. What are you doing that you're just doing because other churches have it, and what are you doing based on your vision?

- 2. What are you measuring in the first place? What is the "it" and how do you know that you've done it?

- 3. Where are you manufacturing energy?

- 4. Where are you pretending to be excited?

- 5. What are you promoting that you don't even like?

6. What's my greatest contribution to the organization?

7. What have I fallen in love with that really needs to change?
